

2nd Annual Training Event

Shattering the Silence of Sexual Violence:

A Multidisciplinary & Collaborative Approach

Tues, August 14, 2012
8:30am – 4:30pm

*Louisiana State Police
Training Academy
Baton Rouge, LA*

*This seminar is an absolute
"must attend" for leaders in law enforcement,
prosecutors, judges,
probation officers,
legislators and others
involved in stopping sexual violence and repairing its damaging effects.*

-Stephen C. Martin, Assistant Attorney General of Louisiana

James "Jimmy" LeBlanc: Secretary, Department of Public Safety and Corrections

Walt Leger III:
Speaker Pro Tempore, LA House of Representatives

Michael D. Edmonson:
Colonel,
Louisiana State Police

Niki Bird: Speaker, National Advocate & Rape
Survivor

Angela Rose: National educator on sexual violence seen on CNN, Fox, & Today Show

Speaker Pro Temp Walt Leger, Col. Mike Edmonson, and the Crime Victim Services Bureau of the Department of Corrections invite you to join them and other criminal justice leaders from across Louisiana in this multidisciplinary training to address many of the complex issues and perspectives surrounding sexual violence.

*Seating is limited, so please register early.
(5.83 CLE credits – Course #7651120814)
Register at <http://tinyurl.com/SVTraining>*

This year's event brought to you by our partners:

